Template:Getrak description

☐

Contents

Description

Recognized internationally among tracking companies for their infrastructure and technology, Getrak is responsible for the largest database of tracked vehicles in Latin America. In the tracking industry, they are among the largest companies specialized in BIG DATA, while also developing M2M, LBS, and web solutions of georeference with SaaS model in convergent platforms. Their services are offered through 3 data centers of high availability and 100% mirrored, for total data security and access their clients.