Template:Key telematics description

☐

Contents

Description

Key Telematics is a Software as a Service (SaaS) company offering premium hosted software to vendors of asset management solutions. They specialise in bringing affordable premium telematics software to vendors in all industries.

Decades of experience in this market and a strong development team brings an innovative asset tracking software solution trusted by many businesses across the globe. Development never stops and their customers enjoy a platform that maintains your competitive edge.