

Template:Position logic description

Contents

- 1 Description

Description

Position Logic is a leading B2B location-based services company committed to supporting clients' business with integrated applied business intelligence, precision technology, and customized services and solutions.

They understand the need of their clients' businesses, empowering them with the tools, information, and solutions imperative for succeeding in the industry. They are based in Naples, Florida, providing services both nationally and internationally, with GPS tracking software and solutions utilized worldwide.

Position Logic primarily concentrates on providing business solutions that address the areas of enterprise asset management, in-house GPS asset tracking solutions, hosted GPS tracking, location-based security solutions, and professional consulting services.